INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholder of Ivy Securities, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Ivy Securities, Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2007. This statement of financial condition is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this statement of financial condition based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Ivy Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2007, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Nature of business

Ivy Securities, Inc. (the "Company") is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company's business is comprised primarily of agency commissions. The Company may provide certain products or services for its customers in return for which the customers provide orders for securities transactions. Currently, the Company does not engage in such activities but may choose to do so in the future.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers money market funds to be cash equivalents.

Office Equipment

Office equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. The Company provides for depreciation principally using the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of five years.

Revenue and Expense Recognition from Securities Transactions

Securities transactions and the related revenues and expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis.

Income Taxes

The Company's stockholder has elected to treat the Company as an "S" Corporation. As such, the individual stockholder is liable for the federal and state taxes on corporate income and receives the benefit from corporate losses.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Commitment

The Company is obligated under an office lease that expires on March 31, 2009. The lease payments include fixed rent and are subject to additional rent. Future minimum annual payments under the lease are approximately $11,000 per year.

Rent expense was approximately $12,000 for the year ended December 31, 2007.

IVY SECURITIES, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

4. Net capital requirement

The Company is a member of FINRA, and is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1. This rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 and that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2007, the Company's net capital was approximately $871,000, which was approximately $621,000 in excess of its minimum requirement of $250,000.

5. Exemption from Rule 15c3-3

The Company is exempt from the SEC Rule 15c3-3 pursuant to the exemptive provision under sub-paragraph (k)(2)(ii) and, therefore, is not required to maintain a "Special Reserve Bank Account for the Exclusive Benefit of Customers."

6. Off-balance sheet risk and concentrations of credit risk

In the normal course of business, the Company's customer activities involve the execution and settlement of various customer securities transactions. These activities may expose the Company to off-balance sheet risk in the event the customer or other broker is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations and the Company has to purchase or sell the financial instrument underlying the contract at a loss.

Pursuant to its clearance agreement, the Company introduces all of its securities transactions to its clearing broker on a fully-disclosed basis. All of the customers' money balances and long and short security positions are carried on the books of the clearing broker. In accordance with the clearance agreement, the Company has agreed to indemnify the clearing broker for losses, if any, which the clearing broker may sustain from carrying securities transactions introduced by the Company. In accordance with industry practice and regulatory requirements, the Company and the clearing broker monitor collateral on the customers' accounts.

In addition, the receivable from the clearing broker is pursuant to this clearance agreement and includes a clearing deposit of $50,000.

Substantially all of the Company's cash and cash equivalents are invested in a single uninsured money market fund. The Company has experienced no losses associated with these accounts.

7. Other income

The Company received a special payment of $35,000 from the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority in connection with the consolidation of the regulatory functions of the New York Stock Exchange and the National Association of Securities Dealers. This payment is non-recurring.
